Type her name once, then print

TYPE ONCE, IT FILLS EVERY PAGE

The bride's name

"For ..." on every card

Her name goes in the top corner of every card ("For Maya"). The card texts keep "the bride". Leave the box empty and the cards read "For the bride".

FILL IN AND PRINT

1. Open this PDF in Adobe Acrobat Reader (free) or in your web browser. Some built-in viewers do not fill forms; if typing does nothing, use Acrobat Reader.
2. Type once in the boxes on this page. Every page with the same detail fills in by itself.
3. Save with File → Save (or Download in a browser) so the names stay in your copy.
4. Print at 100% on US Letter paper: choose "Actual size" or 100% and turn off "Fit to page" or "Shrink to fit".

WHAT IS INSIDE

- Pages 1–3: this guide: type, print, cut, play, and a worked example
- Pages 4–9: the cards for two-sided printing: 3 sheets, each card page followed by its backs
- Pages 10–12: the same 3 card sheets without backs, for one-sided printing
- Page 13: what you may do with this file

WHICH SHEETS

SHEET	1	2	3
TWO-SIDED PAGES	4–5	6–7	8–9
ONE-SIDED PAGE	10	11	12
CARDS	rules + own, mild 1–4	mild 5–12	spicy 13–20

Mild only? Sheet 3 holds the spicy cards, each marked SPICY with a flame. For a mild deck print pages 4–7 (two-sided) or pages 10–11 (one-sided) and leave out the spicy pages 8–9 or page 12.

Print and play

Printing, cutting and the short rules

PRINT THE CARDS

Print on US Letter paper at 100% or "Actual size", never "Fit" or "Shrink", and type the pages you want under Pages. For cards with backs, print pages 4–9 with "Print on both sides" and "Flip on long edge": each card page is followed by its backs. No duplex printer? Print pages 10–12, the same sheets without backs: the cards work without them. Light cardstock (65–110 lb / 175–300 gsm) makes sturdier cards if your printer takes it.

TEST PRINT FIRST

Print pages 4–5 as one two-sided sheet. Each card should measure 3.5 × 2.5 in (89 × 64 mm) between the cut lines, and when you hold the sheet against a window, every back should sit behind its front. If the backs are upside down, switch to "Flip on short edge"; if the cards are small, set 100% and print again.

CUT

Cut along the light grey lines on the front: once down the middle, then three times across. The short black marks in the margin show where the lines run if your printer drops them. Each sheet gives eight cards. A paper trimmer is fastest.

YOU SUPPLY

Paper or light cardstock, a printer, scissors or a paper trimmer, and drinks of everyone's choice, with or without alcohol. Nothing physical is included.

YOUR OWN CARDS

Write on the blank cards by hand, or type before you print: on page 4 (or 10) click a line of a write-your-own card and type one line per box, about 35 characters each. The same card fills in on both pages. Tick mild or spicy on the printed card and shuffle it in.

HOW TO PLAY

1. Shuffle the deck (rules cards out, your own cards in) and put it face down in the middle.
2. The bride draws first. She reads the card out, starting with "Drink if...".
3. Everyone the card is true for takes a sip of whatever they are drinking. The reader too, if it is true for her.
4. Pass the deck to the left. The next player draws and reads.
5. Play until the deck runs out or the car arrives. There is no winner: the stories are the point.

NO ALCOHOL NEEDED

Every sip can be a mocktail, soda or water, and nobody has to explain a sip. For a no-drink game, players hold up ten fingers and put one down instead of sipping; the last player with a finger up is the most innocent person in the room.

THIS IS THE MINI DECK

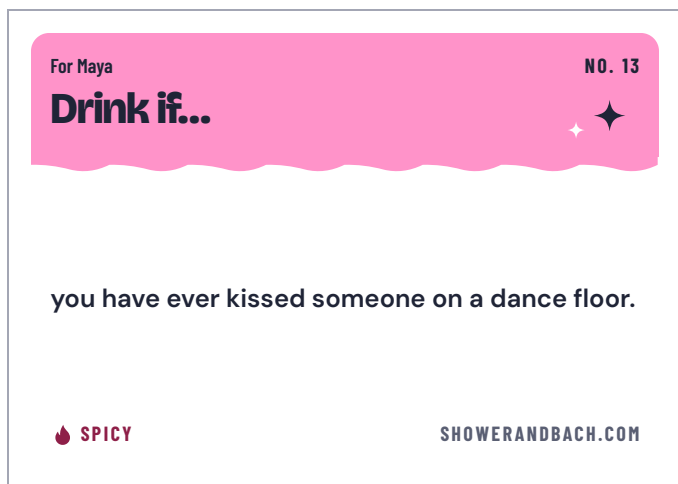

Drink If Mini has 20 of the 48 prompts of the full Drink If deck, which adds 28 more cards, two more write-your-own cards and a fold-over table sign with the house rules. Find it at showerandbach.com.

Worked example

Four friends, two cards, one round

CARD 05 AT ACTUAL SIZE

CARD 13 AT ACTUAL SIZE

THE ROUND, STEP BY STEP

1. Maya (the bride) draws card 05 and reads: “Drink if... you have borrowed something of the bride’s and never given it back.” Jess and Priya sip. Priya admits it was a denim jacket, in 2019.
2. Dana draws a card about karaoke in front of strangers. Everyone sips; Dana with a mocktail.
3. Later the group shuffles in the spicy cards. Priya draws card 13: “Drink if... you have ever kissed someone on a dance floor.” Three people sip, so Priya may ask one of them for the story. Dana passes, and that is fine.
4. Jess draws one of the group’s own cards: “Drink if... you were there for the karaoke incident.” Everyone sips.

Type Maya’s name once on page 1 and every card says “For Maya” in its top corner, as on these two. The card texts keep “the bride”.

For the bride

RULES 1 OF 2

How to play

Shuffle and put the deck face down. Take turns: draw a card and read it out, starting with "Drink if...". Everyone it is true for takes a sip. Then the next player draws.

RULES 2 OF 2

Any drink counts

A sip of anything counts: a cocktail, a mocktail, soda or water. Nobody has to drink alcohol. Spicy cards carry a flame and the word SPICY; leave them out for a gentle game.
